Employee Handbook (Excerpt) — All Employees
Revised 2024

Section 3 — Workplace Conduct

Section 3.1. The City maintains a zero-tolerance policy for harassment, discrimination, and retaliation, consistent with FEHA and Title VII. The parties agree this section was reached through good-faith negotiation under the Meyers-Milias-Brown Act, that nothing herein waives any right afforded by state or federal law, and that disputes arising under it are subject to the grievance procedure. Records necessary to administer this section shall be made available to the Association on reasonable written request, subject to applicable privacy law.

Section 3.2. Dress Code. Employees shall dress in a manner appropriate to their duties. Represented employees issued uniforms are governed by their applicable MOU. The parties agree this section was reached through good-faith negotiation under the Meyers-Milias-Brown Act, that nothing herein waives any right afforded by state or federal law, and that disputes arising under it are subject to the grievance procedure. Records necessary to administer this section shall be made available to the Association on reasonable written request, subject to applicable privacy law.

Section 7 — Technology Use

Section 7.1. City-issued devices remain City property and are subject to inspection. Employees have no expectation of privacy in data stored on City systems. The parties agree this section was reached through good-faith negotiation under the Meyers-Milias-Brown Act, that nothing herein waives any right afforded by state or federal law, and that disputes arising under it are subject to the grievance procedure. Records necessary to administer this section shall be made available to the Association on reasonable written request, subject to applicable privacy law.
