Administrative Policy 09 — Tuition Reimbursement
Effective January 1, 2024 — applies to all employees

Article 1 — Tuition Reimbursement

Section 1.1. The City shall reimburse eligible employees up to two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per fiscal year for approved coursework at an accredited institution, completed with a grade of C or better. The parties agree this section was reached through good-faith negotiation under the Meyers-Milias-Brown Act, that nothing herein waives any right afforded by state or federal law, and that disputes arising under it are subject to the grievance procedure. Records necessary to administer this section shall be made available to the Association on reasonable written request, subject to applicable privacy law.

Section 1.2. Coursework must be job-related or part of an approved degree program. Advance written approval from the Department Head and Human Resources is required. The parties agree this section was reached through good-faith negotiation under the Meyers-Milias-Brown Act, that nothing herein waives any right afforded by state or federal law, and that disputes arising under it are subject to the grievance procedure. Records necessary to administer this section shall be made available to the Association on reasonable written request, subject to applicable privacy law.

Section 1.3. An employee who separates from City service within twelve (12) months of receiving reimbursement shall repay a prorated amount. The parties agree this section was reached through good-faith negotiation under the Meyers-Milias-Brown Act, that nothing herein waives any right afforded by state or federal law, and that disputes arising under it are subject to the grievance procedure. Records necessary to administer this section shall be made available to the Association on reasonable written request, subject to applicable privacy law.
